

Is my child on track?

Speech and language in children under 5

- Thursday, October 25, 2018, 6:45 to 8:00 pm

Do other people have a hard time understanding your three year-old talk?
Is your child developing differently than their siblings?
Are you worried that something might be wrong?

To learn what is “normal” in children’s speech and language development, attend this informal workshop with members of the early childhood team from Jeffery Hale Community Services and speech-language pathologists. Ask questions about your child. Get information about helpful resources if need be.

In the Coin soleil on the second floor of the Jeffery Hale Hospital , 1250 chemin Sainte-Foy, Quebec, G1S 2M4.

Free parking! Free babysitting!
