Kindergarten entry is an exciting moment in family life. There are many things you can do as a family that will help your child get off to a good start at school.

Join Psycho-Educator Julie Fraser and other English-speaking families for an interactive workshop designed to help your child develop skills needed to succeed at school. Discover how you can better support your child the year prior to starting school!

- 5:50 to 6:00pm Meet & greet with parents and children
- 6:00 to 7:00pm Fun and games for children supervised by caring volunteers while parents attend a conference entitled Keys to Success at School
- 7:00 to 8:00pm Parents and children reunited for a special Get Ready for Kindergarten activity
